

Week 9
Incredible Wealth
Ephesians 2:4-7
Bethany Lay

In our culture, wealth is highly coveted. I am not concerned, so much, with having billions of dollars (although I would not turn down an offer), it would just be nice to just a little bit more than enough. The problem is answering the question, "How much is enough?" Most of us have to watch our spending and live within our means. It forces us to be frugal. It forces us to pick and choose what we will buy.

It is interesting in these verses that God uses the terms "rich" and "wealthy" to describe his mercy, grace and kindness. The terms used mean that He has these things in abundance. It is more than enough...much more!

Because it is abundant, He does not have to be frugal with it. He is certainly not stingy with it. He offers it freely to anyone, and it never runs out. I hope that this week you can rest in knowing that God's mercy, grace and kindness will never run out on you. There will always be more than enough.

QUESTION: Do you live with a grateful heart that God's mercy, grace and kindness are always available to you?

WALK IT OUT: At the end of each day this week, take a moment to stop and thank God for his abundant grace.

PRAYER: Father, I am so blessed that You would give me your grace, mercy and kindness. You do not withhold it from me, and you do not ration it based on my performance or Your supply. You have an infinite supply, and You offer it to me, Your daughter, every day. Thank you.
