Welcome to Coastal Community Church

Joey Tomlinson– Pastor of Music and Arts Meditation Part 2

This week I want to continue to discuss the discipline of meditation and would like to commend two books. The first book is The Spiritual Disciplines for the Christian Life by Donald Whitney. This book has a great chapter on the discipline of meditation and would be a very profitable place to begin to learn about meditation. The second is a newer book called, God's Battle Plan For The Mind by David W. Saxton. Both books are biblical and practical and God has used them tremendously in my life. I believe a natural place to begin the discipline of meditation (and both books will agree) is scripture memorization. Most of the time they are two sides of the same coin. Personally I keep a journal of verses I have memorized and plan to memorize. Sometimes I saturate my mind in one passage a week and there are other seasons I memorize larger chunks of the Bible on a weekly basis. In my process of memorizing, I seek to understand the context of a passage, I concentrate on the individual words of a passage and I naturally begin to examine my own life in light of the particular passage as I begin to pray God's Word back to him. A great place to begin could be Psalm 119: 15-18.
